Dear Colleagues,

The Philippine Librarians Association, Inc. - National Capital Region Librarians Council, in partnership with Intramuros Library Consortium, would like to invite you to a forum entitled "INFORMATION LITERACY : A TWENTY-FIRST CENTURY SKILL" on 12 March 2013, Tuesday, from 8:00 am-11:00 a.m., at the Mapúa Institute of Technology, Muralla St., Intramuros, Manila.

The forum aims to help library administrators, professional librarians, Library and Information Science students, and other information providers to:

- assess current practices on INFORMATION LITERACY, thereby identifying needs to improve professional skills;
- enhance collaborative techniques with stakeholders in the delivery of INFORMATION LITERACY;
- get an update on the implementation of INFORMATION LITERACY PROGRAM in line with the K to 12 curriculum.

Registration is FREE for MEMBERS IN GOOD STANDING (those who have paid their annual dues); P250.00 for NON-MEMBERS and P100.00 for STUDENTS. For inquiries, please get in touch with any member of the Board.

Very truly yours,

Susan O. Pador
